

A Message from Archbishop Dolan

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

They say that in a debate, the contestant who has the last word has a distinct advantage.

A cosmic debate has taken place, a debate between life and death, good and evil, light and darkness, grace and sin, hope and despair, love and hate, faith and doubt.

An epic debate has taken place between Satan and Jesus, between Good Friday and Easter Sunday . . . and who has the last word?

“In the beginning was the Word . . .”

That Word is the Son of God –

That Word took flesh in Jesus –

That Word died on the cross to save us –

That Word rose from the dead –

That Word has, and is, the last Word!

A blessed Easter, everybody!

Faithfully in Christ,

+ Timothy M. Dolan

Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan
Archbishop of Milwaukee

